fleing determined not only to keep up with the times, but t keep shead of all competitors, I have had gotten up FIV & LARGE CHROMOS. 13 by 18 inches in size, and shall give THE FIVE FREE to every subscriber to the FIRESIDE VISITOR! In addition to this, I ot only keep the VISITOR up to its present stand ard, but shall materially improve it during the year. Our Chromos are made in pure Oil Colors, and are printed in 20 colors, and any description I might attempt to give of them would not do them justice, yet I will give our readers a partial description of them, in order that they can get some idea of

No. 1 is a fine Chromo done in pure Oil Colors, in 20 print-BEWARE.

Beware! Beware! for " She is fooling thee, She is fooling thee, Trust her not-Oh, trust her not ! " This subject is represented by a beautiful young lady sitting in a rustic chair, beneath the overhanging branches of a fin old eim tree; she is faultlessly dressed, with her long, golden ringlets hanging down over her shoulders; in her lap is a shower of beautiful flowers. Near by is a beautiful waterfall, while in the Jistance tower mountain peaks. Taken as a whole, it is a lovely picture—the beautiful lady in the rustic chair in a thoughtful mood, luxuriant foliage all around, the beautiful flowers, the landscape, with the blue canopy of heaven o'er all combine to form an enchanting scene, and one that car not full to satisfy all No. 2 is a fine Oil Chromo, in 20 colors, size 13 by 18 in Gathering Ferns.

A beautiful girl of eight years is out gathering terns-she is barefooted, with no hat on her head, the wind playing with her golden locks. She has her apron full of ferns. It is a beautiful picture of childish beauty and ionocence, and cannot fail to find favor in the eyes of all. The coloring of the landscape is very fine. In the distance is seen the little one's home. The picture, as a whole, is very beautiful and true to nature. It is well worth the price of a year's subscription to the FIRESIDE VISITOR, yet every subscriber gets the VISITOR a year, and the five chromos for the small

No. 3 is a fine Oil Chromo in 20 colors, size 13 by 18 inch-Happy Dreams of Childhood. This Beautiful Chromo represents a sleeping child, a beautiful girl of three years of age. She is sweetly sleeping with her doll clasped in her hands. Over and above her are seen angel forms scattering flowers and blessings on the head of the dear one. Beside her couch is sitting her mother intently watching her child, while her hands have paused in the fancy needle-work on which she is engaged. It is a beautifully sweet picture, and will find a warm place in every mother's heart in the land. The child sleeping so sweetly with a smile hovering around its lips, the angel forms o'er head, the mother watching her dear one, the rich draperies and furniture of the room make a rare picture of loveliness. It is taken from a rare painting by one of the old masters, and cannot fail to be appreciated by all.

No. 4 is a fine Oil Chromo in 20 colors, size 13 by 18 inch-The Mute Appeal. This subject represents a beautiful Italian girl, dressed in her native costume. She is what is known as a Street Musicn, and earns her livelihood by her violin and voice. She has played and sung to the crowd, and has quietly folded her right arm over and around her violin, while her left arm is outstreched, thus mutely appealing to the public to give her what they may. It is a lovely picture. The girl, though only a strolling player, is rarely beautiful—the sweet, beseeching expression of the face could but make the most sordid find the way into their pockets, and give her a few pennies. It is one of the richest pictures we have seen for many a day. It is brought out in Oil Colors, and is equal in every respect, to any oil painting, and few can tell whether it is an Oil Chrome or an Gil Painting, so faithfully it is reproduced. To see it is to fall in love with it at once, and every one who sees it, will

No. 5 is a fine Oil Chromo in 20 colors, size 13 by 18 inch-The Reward!

This is a companion piece to No. 4. It represents a beautiful Italian girl (entirely unlike the other.) She is also a Street Musician, earning her livelihood with her voice and violing she has played to her audience, and has received her reward in the share of a shining silver piece which she is hosting in her hand, while a smile of delight, at her success, povers on her lips, and her face is radiant. It is a very lovely picture. This Chromo alone is worth twice the cost of a year's subscription to the FIRESIDE VISITOR, yet subscription will receive the FIVE foregoing large Chromos FREE, and the VISITOR a year for a single dollar.

THE BIBLE LOOKING-GLASS

SACRED SCRIPTURES,

And illustrating the diversities of human character and the qualities of the human heart. Consisting of Six Books in One Volume, Profusely Illustrated by Object-Teaching Pictures ! Showing the pain and misery resulting from vice, peace and happiness arising from virtue.

BY JoHN W. BARBER, and Others. This is the most original work, without question, in re-ligious literature ever produced in our country—as unique and quaint in its way as Bunyan's famous allegory; Among the world of books, it is the only one that instructs in christianity and human nature on the principle of object teaching. People who would seldom open the Bible itself are attracted to this work, for it is a big picture-book in religion.

Kwery picture, too, enforces a principle. No book extant so instantly represents the Gospei—no, not even the Bible itself—as this, by its appeals through the eye.

Over one hundred and thirty topics are introduced and entarged upon with illustrative pictures, such as Repentance, Faith, Hope, Love, Justice, Time brings up Truth, The Memory of Righteousness. The Memory of Wickedness, Brotherly Kindness, The Selfish Man, The Christian Church, The Syna-gome of Satan, The Safe Bridge. The Unsafe Bridge, Tra-and False Principles, Carnal Security, Faith and Works, The Iteavenly Shepherd. The Joys of Salvation, The End of Human Greatness, &c.

The author is now an old man. His life has been filled and rounded out with good works. He was born in the last years of the last century, in the administration of George Washington. In 1812 he was apprenticed to learn the art of engraving. More than a half a century ago he began, in a small way, as an author. A book about that time was projected by him, under the title of the "Looking-Glass," contaming the essential features of this volume. His earliest publications were large emblematic religious engravings, one of which, in the hands of our missionaries fifty years ago, was the main instrumentality in the conversion of the Queen of he Santwich Islands.

The pictures in the "Bible Looking-Glass" are all from his drawings, and many of them engraved by him. They show great ingenuity in design. They are not meant to be artistic, but to convey at a glance some principle of truth vital to human weifare. The costumes are those of the American human weifare. The costumes are those of the American people when Mr. Barber was young—sixty years ago. They are now oid-fashioned. The Christian religion itself, we believe, is not considered new-fashioned.

The work has great popularity, over 100,000 copies having already passed from the hands of Canvansing Agents into those of the people, where, lying upon the tables of thousands of families, it has acted as a continual teacher of the Gospel.

"The Bible Looking-Glass" being in quarto form, is a companion in shape and character to the Family Bible, which it reflects and explains. While the work is thoroughly evangelical and orthodox, no peculiar denominational doctrines are advocated; only the great cardinal principles of Christianity, in which good people everywhere believe.

The mechanical execution of this work is worthy of its literary excellence, while the low price at which it is offered places it within the reach of all.

places it within the reach of all. Sold exclusively by subscription.

This plane has given such perfect satisfaction and attracted such universal attention from the musical critics of all parts of Italy, that I wish still more to surprise them by showing them the Weber Upright, which has, on account of its great singing quality and easy adaptation to the voice, become the marvel of the country. It has been my constant companion here and through the West the last two seasons, and I cannot leave without taking one with me, and therefore beg you to select one for me and send it to Genoa, Italy. SATURDAY, JANUARY 8, 1881. EDITORIAL NOTES.

KON the last page of the present issue of the ADVERTISER we publish the Abstract of the Legislation of 1880 which was referred to in our article last week as an evidence that the Legislature which assembled last year was a working body and made important additions to the Statute Book of the country, besides providing for important Administrative details.

DINNER AT IOLANI PALACE.

On Monday, the 3rd inst., His Majesty the King entertained at dinner the following gentlemen, on a visit to the Islands Gen'l Charles E. Furlong, of New York, Mr. Carl Mohr, of Marburg, Austria; Mr. Alfred O'Gorman Munkhouse, of Berne, Switzerland; in company with His Excellency Governor Dominis.

It is reported that a Chinaman, convicted of an infamous crime, and condemned to ten years' hard labor, has escaped from the chain gang, and has been at large over two weeks.

A TEMPERANCE CHAMPION.—We offer a cordial greeting to D. Banks McKenzie, Esq., an eminent temperance lecturer, and the founder of the " blue ribbon order," who arrived per City of New York. Ho will fecture at Fort St. Church, next Sunday

We are in receipt of Thrum's Annual for 1881. It is an admirable work of reference for all parties doing business in, or seeking information about, the Islands. It is a " Handbook of information, on matters relating to the Hawaiian Islands," and is an excellent vade mecum.

OUR neighbor Gazette, under a new editorial management, states in to-day's issue, a purpose to avoid anything like personality; and on the same page insinuates that Hon. S. K. Kaai is not the author of his speech at Kaumakapili; that "smacks of a certain style of oratory," and that the "howl against the Board of Health is very amusing, coming from the quarter it does." Now, this is mere insinuation and unjust suspicion; and unworthy of the principles of fairness of discussion announced. The translation of the speech in Saturday's Advertiser was not literal, perhaps somewhat anglicized; but any one familiar with the native language Hawaiian thought and feeling, of which the Honorable Noble, it is well known, is an admirable exponent in his oratory.

Then away with your insinuation, it is unfounded : and an insult to this Hawaiian

The prospectus of the College of St. Louis contains one feature which we regret to speak of as novel in Hawaii Nei. We allude to the scheme of the Evening School Department. As stated in the prospectus, the object aimed at in the institu tion of this department " is to afford all classes of the community the means of acquiring a theoretical and practical knowledge of all commercial and business transactions in daily use; and also to give an insight into the workings and applications to attend the religious exercises or not, according as their of the different trades." To attain this end, the management of the College do not intend to trust to the theoretical or mere book knowledge, which the non-practical teacher might impart. There is evidently no intention to play with the subject. Amateur teaching of the practical work of life of little value to any one and would be utterly useless in the case of our native Hawaiian youth The teaching at St. Louis College, is to be b practical men-men who are earning their own living by the arts which they are about to teach. The management of the College are indeed forthnate in securing this voluntary assistance; at the same time, bonor is due to them for the conception of this project, and their energy in securing the assistance requisite to enable them to carry it out How different might not the state of this nation be, had there been a constant devotion to the idea of teaching to Hawaiian youth, agriculture and the handicrafts! How many thousands who have through idle and vicious habits sunk into premature graves, might now have been living and been active, producing members of the community, im proving their own condition, whilst they were add ing to the wealth of the country. We bid the Professors of the College of St. Louis, and their Master-Artizan Assistants, God speed in a good work. They will need some patience and perseverance-not to be dannted by apparent lack of success-not to expect too much at once. The

MISS IDA MORRIG, and Mr. Benj. Owen, have kindly volunteered their services at the opening of the Hall of St. Johns College, on Tuesday eve. January 17th. Miss Mobrig comes here with the highest reputation as an oratorio and operatic singer; possessing one of the most lovely voices, combined with cultivation and style. The public may look forward with a great deal of pleasure, to the musical treat in store for them. Mr. Benj. Owen, of late accompanist to Wilhelmj and Patti, will on this occasion accompany his talented pupil.

RACES AT THE PARK .- The races which took place at Kapiolani Park on New Year's afternoon were well attended and proved interesting Theadvertised races were two in number and consisted of a trotting race, mile heats, best two in three, for a purse of $400, and running race, half mile and repeat for a purse of $200. The entries for the trotting race were grey stallion King William, driven by James Dodd, bay mare Dolly Varden driven by J. Shaw, and the bay colt Little Giant driven by W Lishman. All the horses entered, started, and the race was won by b. m. Dolly Varden in two heats, 3.05, 8.07. Little Giant second, King William distanced. The entries for the running race were Lady McLellan, ridden by Clarence Macfarlane, and Telephone ridden by H B. Hales. This race was won by Lady McLellan in 584, 594. Exhibition was made of the two noted trotters Oliver and Thomas H. and with this and a few scrub running races the day's sports at the Park ended.

His Ex. KAHAPULA BECKLEY, WAS born at Waimea, Hawaii, November 26, 1845; son of W. G. Beckley and the Chiefess Rabinu. He received a good education. He was made Purser of the steamer Kilauea shortly after her arrival here. On the accession of His Majesty, he was removed from the Kilauea and appointed second clerk in the Land office. On the death of the late E. H. Boyd, creating a vacancy in the office of His Majesty's Chamberlain, he was appointed to the place. When he resigned this position he went to Molokai, and entered into cane planting on his lands on that Island At the last election of A presentatives for the Legislative Assembly, he was returned for the district of Moloka; and Lanai On the appointment of Hon. J. E. Bush. to the office of Minister of the Interior, he was made Governor of the island of Kauai, which position he held at the time of his death, Friday morning early. January 7, 1881. He leaves behind him a widow, one boy and four girls, a brother and sister, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his loss. He was noted for his kind and genial manner he was a steady and upright man, a loving husband and a kind father, and it will be hard to find one to fill his place among his race. His funeral will take place on Sunday.

THE CHINESE CHURCH .- On Sunday last the Chinese Church on Fort-street was opened for public service, and solemnly dedicated to the worship of God. Mr. Sit Moon, the Pastor of the Church, officiated at the morning service, and after prayer, Scripture reading, and a hymn, read an historical statement of the formation of the church the initiation of the building land, and the manner in which the Sacred enterprise had been supported Psalm 24, was then read, after which Mr. Goe Kim read an address, and on behalf of the Burns ing Committee, presented the keys of the building to the Pastor. This was followed by a solemn act of dedication, read by Mr. Sit Moon. After prayer and a hymn. Mr. Shing Chack addressed the congregation, and at the close of the service, the Rev. Rev. Dr. Hyde and the Rev. W. Frear officiated. The Rev. S. E. Bishop, then read a passage of Scripture in English and offered a prayer. This was followed by Dr. Damon's address, setting forth what had been done to spread Christianity among Chinese residents in the Hawaiian Kingdom. The full text of this address will be found in the fourth page of this issue, of the P. C. ADVERTISER. A hymn was then sung in the Chinese language and the Benediction was prononneed by the Rev. Mr. Kuaea.
